

ping game for the purpose other than for sale shall refuse to accept any game package or packages or box or boxes containing game, unless contents of same is plainly marked thereon, and the name of the shipper must be plainly marked thereon; provided that nothing in this section shall render it unlawful to sell squirrels or rabbits in season for food consumption in Allegany County only. Any person or persons, or corporation or corporations, offending against any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars for each bird or animal so shipped, and one hundred dollars for each deer so shipped, and upon failure to pay the same shall be committed to the Allegany County Jail for a period of sixty days for each offense. Any deputy game warden, constable or other person who shall procure the conviction of any person or corporation for violating any of the provisions of this section shall receive half of the fine collected after the payment of costs, and the remaining half shall be paid over to the State Treasurer of Maryland to the account of the State Game Protective Fund, to be used by the State Game Warden as may be provided by law.

Sec. 16b. That all laws or parts of laws, both of the Code of Public General Laws and of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, for the protection of ducks, geese, swan or brant, or any wild water fowl in the State of Maryland, shall not hereafter be in force or have effect in Allegany County.

Sec. 16c. That it shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, pursue or kill any of the birds or animals named in Section 12, 13, 14 and 14A of this Act, or any insectivorous birds (excepting English sparrows), in Allegany County on Sunday, or on election days, and it shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this Act if any person is found in the fields or woods with a gun on Sunday or on election days, or to hunt or kill in any trap or destroy any of the birds named in Sections 12, 13 and 14A of this Act, or by shooting from a blind or baited place, or killing a deer at a deer lick, or shooting at or killing any partridge or quail while it is sitting or resting on the ground; provided, however, that it shall not be unlawful to hunt any of the birds or animals referred to in Sections 12, 13 and 14 of this Act while there is a tracking snow on the ground during any of the periods when it may otherwise be lawful to shoot said birds or animals, nor shall it be unlawful for any person to hunt upon the lands of any person in Allegany County without permission first had and obtained in writing of the landowners, tenant or person in possession.

Sec. 17. That for the purpose of strictly enforcing the pro-